

Act like the tortoise and succeed: Act and achieve

What is it that distinguishes great achievers from non-achievers? Why some people become famous whereas others remain unknown? The reason is that the former ones acted toward what they are now, while the latter ones were passively looking. Have you at any time regretted that you deserve to have achieved much more than what you have done? Do you believe you have the skills and talents to occupy a position higher than what you are now? Then forget what is past and gone. Start your action now. For us, human beings to attain peace, happiness, and a rewarding life, and to achieve our aspiration are the solitary goals of our life.

Action is the force that changes our position, starts the movement, and conveys us to the point of our goal. Among us there are many who have not achieved in life what they deserve to have achieved; the reason is simple! They have not acted; even if they have acted they have not done the right actions. The inaction of such people is not the deadly sin, SLOTH! There are many more causative factors. They are mainly psychogenic. They block them from acting and achieving their goal.

This book will show you the ways to break the barriers, start the action, and realize your goals!
